Cookies

Why does this website use cookies?

A Web server has no memory so the hosted Web site you are visiting transfers a cookie file of the browser on your computer's hard disk so that the Web site can remember who you are and your preferences. This message exchange allows the Web server to use this information to present you with customized Web pages.

What data does a cookie collect?

The session cookie is stored in temporary memory and is not retained after the browser is closed. Session cookies do not collect information from your computer. They typically will store information in the form of a session identification that does not personally identify the user.

Basis of Processing this data

This data is processed to meet legitimate interest.

Appendix 4 Photograph & Video footage from classes and events

What data will be held?

If consented to via the booking form we will take photos and videos of your child during classes and events.

Where is it stored?

Photos and videos are taken on a smart phone and are deleted off the device after every class once sent to the parent/shared to social media. Some photos are stored in Canva for the purpose of marketing future classes. If you have not given consent to share your child's photos on social media, photos are deleted immediately after sending to you the parent/carer.

For what purpose is it held?

To track learning, development and progress of the child.

If consented to, photos and videos are also shared on social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and our website for marketing purposes.

Who has access to this data?

Me and Little Learners Head office

How is it kept safe?

- All of this data is kept electronically on Google Drive
- All devices have relevant and appropriate security measures to prevent unauthorised access
- Only consented photos and videos are uploaded to drive and social media.
